CASTLE CHILDREN BARRED BY BOARD

School Committee Decides on Vaccination Case.

PRESENT LAW HELD EXPLICIT

Attorneys for Father Given Hearing on Application for Admission of Children Without Undergoing Serum, but Educators Urge that Authorities Enforce Law.

The children of Charles Castle will not be admitted to the public schools of Washington without being vaccinated. This was the unanimous vote of the board of education yesterday afternoon.

On the advice of the special committee appointed to consider the Castle case and to hear the protests of the Anti-Vaccination Society, the board took the stand that the present law is so explicit that it admits of only one interpretation. The following is the report of the special com-

Report of Committee.

This committee, appointed by 'the board of education to consider the present status of the laws of this District relative to the vaccination of chilfren desiring admission to the public schools, met, pursuant to call, on Tuesday, September 27, 1910, at 3:30 o'clock p. m., with all members present. Charles W. Darr and W. C. Balderston, attorneys for Charles Castle, were heard on Mr. Castle's application for the admission of his children to the public schools without vaccination.

The committee has also considered the present status of the law relative to vaccination, and has status of the law relative to vaccination, and has consulted its legal adviser. We are of the opinion that the question of the constitutionality of the vaccinaton haw of 1804, contained in section 274 of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, as the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, as well as of the question whether this act has been impliedly repealed by the vaccination law of 1887, or the compalsory education law of June 8, 1906, are not questions which it is proper for the board of education to pass upon, and that the board of education has no discretion as to the enforcement of the law of 1864.

Accordingly, this committee recommends to the Accordingly, this committee recommends to the as a condition precedent to their admission to the public schools of this District, as it has been here-tofore enforced, until otherwise directed by Congress or the courts.

HOW TO GET RID OF CATARRH

A Simple Safe, Reliable Way and it Costs Nothing to Try.

Those who suffer from catarrh know its miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-six years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream, or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat, and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment thirty-six years, has been treating ca-

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON GAS LIGHT COMPANY, 413-17 TENTH ST. NW. Washington City, D. C., Sept. 8, 1916. To the Stockholders of the Washington Gas Light

To the Stockholders of the Washington Gas Light Company:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the stockholders of the Washington Gas Light Company is called by the board of directors of that company for, and will be held on, FRIDAY, the fourteenth day of October, 1919, at 12 o'clock m., at the principal office of the company, No. 413 Tenth street northwest, in the City of Washington, D. C., to transact such business as may preperly come before said meeting, and especially to consider and approve or otherwise act upon the following propositions: Shall the Washington Gas Light Company con-

tions:

(1) Shall the Washington Gas Light Company continue its practice bitherto of declaring regular quarteris dividends to its stockholders from its net earnings, at the rate of 10 per centum per annum upon its authorized capital of $2,60,000, which capitalization was made many years ago, and does not now adequately represent the fair value of the property of the company used by it for the benefit of the public under the provisions of the company's charter, and its further practice of declaring extra dividends from its undivided profits; or, shall it in future distribute among its stockholders, in the proportions to which they are respectively entitled, the net annual earnings of the company after deducting from its gross earnings all proper emenses of administration and of the conduct of its business and the sume necessary to pay interest upon its bonds and certificates of indebtedness, together with an amount sufficient to cover depreciation, in dividends to an amount approximating 6 per centum upon the fair value of the property used by the said company for the benefit of the public in supplying gas under its charter, assuming that the said net earnings shall be sufficient to justify said dividends?

(2) Shall the moneys needed annually for extensions of the company's means and other expenses generally classed as "betterments" be paid out of the earnings of the company on shall such moneys hereafter be raised by a bond issue or issues secured by deed of trust upon all of the company's property which it is entitled to embrace in such deed of trust, said bonds to be sold for not less than par, and the proceeds thereof to be applied exclusively to said betterments?

(3) Shall the company refund its outstanding bonds now bearing 4 per centum interest, amounting to $2,600,000, which certificates of indebtedness are now payable at ontaining dividend certificates of indebtedness bearing 6 per centum interest, amounting to $2,600,000, which certificates of indebtedness are now payable at the option of the company by a new bond issue secured by deed of trust upon all of the property of the company which it is legally entitled to embrace in said deed of trust, said bonds to bear interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, and to be payable at such time or times as the said special Rhode Island Citizens' Committee

Makes Report.

Senator Penrose Talks with President President of the said bonds, and expressly stipulating that holders of the said bonds shall rely only upon the security embraced in the said deed of trust? Further, in the event that the said stockholders' meeting shall determine that future betterments shall not be paid out of the earnings, but shall be financed by a bond issue, shall the issue of bonds contemplated in this proposition be increased, and if so, to what amount, for the purpose of financing said betterments required in the near future?

If it is not thought expedient to refund the said issue of $2,600,000 of dividend certificates of indebtedness be paid with interest to the date of payment by the proceeds of the said new bonds, or of so many of said brough as a five hought expedient to sell the said stockholders.
